Happen to several other users. Was told it would be within a few days, then it went to no contact, and now it was allegedly Sunday. I'm confident this isn't going anywhere and I paid $140 for no support and a semi-public method.

This is getting out of hand. He scammed 5 (FIVE) fucking people already. If he's not even gonna bother to defend himself why not just close him and get it over with.

I've got tons of free time now so I will set up for everyone today.

Don't worry guys I'm not scamming anyone.

If you're here to be drama queens, please fuck off already.

His previous name is "Friyie" He already has a pretty crazy deal dispute on his name.

I tried to warn everybody that this user would scam again, and I also bullied him out of the Wolfpack discord server.

Hope he gets closed soon.

Just leaving this here:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5997880>

Friyie or Yung something that he calls himself now, charged $300 for a “working, non saturated, and whitehat” method.

The method is basically pretending to be able to get replica watches cheap, and then convincing strangers on reddit etc to invest, and then steal their money.

$300 for that. ?

I have not received any further updates, despite Gravy claiming to be doing my setup currently.

Sorry for your loss, sucks that people like this are around.

However, he is active and around- so hopefully it could be a misunderstanding or delay
