Thread: Notification popup glitching again.

Psychogenic - March 16, 2020, 8:53 pm

Couldn't find any threads that weren't closed to bump to address this issue, but it's happened again lol.

I can't see my notifications, can only check a few manually.

How about you guys?

DoraThaDestroya - March 16, 2020, 8:54 pm

Same here, its blank. Couldn't see anything

HERMES - March 16, 2020, 8:55 pm

Just happened to me. Wasn't a biggie. Just exited my google notification and went on about browsing :)

I can't imagine going through all of HF's setup to find a glitch like this.
Good luck dude.

Omniscient - March 16, 2020, 10:39 pm

Well it's new so part of it might be walking back some recent changes.

Dorrance - March 17, 2020, 4:59 pm

Well I guess we are back here again with notifications not working + convos can't be viewed.

Confirming notifications are temporarily not working for me as well. I'm sure it'll be fixed soon enough.

How about we just create a thread to report notification and convo errors only?

Like it's just crowded to see different threads for same discussion.

There is one for notifications but people don't use it that often.

I usually did it. Opened and closed when it happened and tagged Xerotic and Omni (Also privately msged xerotic on another platform).

Wasn't available when it happened again.

Dunno if you have fixed the issue with the dodgy ram but it could possibly be that.

Tyrannosaurus Rex - March 18, 2020, 5:41 pm

Confirming that it's fixed.

Fortunately, the immaculate popup glitching encourages into the sad coherent offensive lead. The former comparison is that sounds adamant? Dunno WTF has happened.
