Thank you. I must say, I lost 16K Bytes at scratch cards and Slots the last time. You can see that here;

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6057003>

I think this was just a lucky shot for one time only for me. You can always try but I don't want to encourage anybody to risk their Bytes because of my random luck.

Vibe - March 22, 2020, 9:03 am

Congratulations I lost all my bytes gambling earlier lol

Yeah same here...award just slips out our hands because of this pandemic virus that stops the sports all over the world...really sucks.

Before the sports are being stop I was doing well on achieving winnings of bytes from NBA and NHL mostly but damn it suddenly slips our hand...maybe when it will be up they will consider bringing back our current level :)

I can't lead you to any link, Xerotic told me by Conversation.

About the SPECIAL button, I chose to attack and it didn't do much.. so I wonder what that button will do or should do.

On the other hand, what's up with this little sword (not all Hackúman got that);

You can't exactly have 2 eggs of the same color(type) unless one is already in the incubator. You should be able to obtain 1 of each though.
