Thread: [\[FREE\] USPS 1-3 Day Priority Shipping Label Method **](#)

theoldbrit - March 23, 2020, 8:58 am

Because of all this f*ckery with USPS shipping labels, and because I'm finished selling labels. I've decided as a gift to y'all, I will send you a method of creating USPS priority shipping labels. I can guarantee you they work because this is the same method I've been using for my label services for months. And yes, a quick google search would also get you the same method but I wrote this one myself so it's explained better and is easy to follow along. Each label takes 3-8 minutes to make and you can make unlimited labels. No more selling of this method, this needs to end. Prices are outrageous and you guys are just getting ripped off, they're tricky to find but they're on other forums at either stupid cheap prices or in leaked giveaways.

Post a reply to this thread and add my discord after: norux#8189 UPGRADED MEMBERS ONLY. I will decide if I want to give you the method or not.

Let's get it boys. Now, I'm not ruining the shipping label economy because I am not giving away the 10+lb and international priority shipping label method, only the one that's most saturated. Still works, but saturated. And yes, I am doing this mainly because of you, Tremorz. F u ck you, Tremorz.

I don't know why I bought this method from you for 30$ before 5 days!! I could have waited some more days and I could get it free:/

And I'm damn sure this method will get patched soon and rip my 30$:/ and good that you don't sell the international one!! But if you are gentleman just replace me with a new alternative method lol! Just value my money tho :D

Only decided to give the first few people the method, closing thread now. Cheers!
