Thread: Successful Ewhoring Chat

Craggy - March 26, 2020, 12:55 pm

I am trying to learn this but does anyone have a saved chat of successful Ewhoring that I could look at? It would help a lot trying to learn how to chat with the men and whats the best way to do it.

Thanks guyz

There is nowhere outside the succesful chat. If you want to make more sales, you have to get selling skills. There are ton of great selling books/courses outside. Begin with Jordan Belfort's book: The way of the wolf.

If you have questions, just dm me.

Note how this person said books and not eBooks.

This thread should help you - <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5863681>

I also suggest you get on YouTube and start watching as many videos on sales as you can.

everyone who posted here is wrong. almost all ewhores do this at this day and age. what you need to have is social proof. have an onlyfans/twitter account and make sure your customer can see it (post it on ur story), then just keep it short and simple. with over 300 adds a day you have to be efficient.

This is interesting.

From what I am hearing from some ewhores and some real girls is that the quarantine situation is changing everything. Men want interaction. If you can give that, you're gonna make sales. Automation is not going to work. Buyers think in the short term. Timewasters are the ones asking for verification or do you have a Snapchat.

why is everyone wrong? are you sure that you can make more than 100$ when you don't have any basic skills in sales?

this is meant for people who have never had interactions with other people. if you want to make big bucks, learn how to work efficiently and target your audience. experience will teach you that this aint the way to make 500$+
