Holy fuck, im a HF user since 2008, mainly lurking and i just got punked my omnis aprilfools. I thought the domain was being spoofed into a fake HF trying to steal my btc.

Soulmate~?? - April 1, 2020, 10:11 am

SaintJimmy - April 1, 2020, 10:22 am

To be very honest, I was expecting more surprises ever since the first of the pranks popped up (the loading CF page). I was a bit confused first on how my IP had changed since I've been using the same one literally from my home network in weeks.

POLY MATH - April 1, 2020, 10:24 am

It wasn't even funny...I almost had a heart attack lol

KeelanxHacks - April 1, 2020, 10:24 am

Oh my god I was actually eating and went on my phone to lurk around, and saw that message which said something about an Ip Change and a password reset I immediately stopped eating and left it there and went on my laptop and checked my email address for any password reset and also logged into my btc wallet, I really thought that I've been ratted or something started thinking about all the probabilities. Damn I wasted that good food.
