I paid the fee, so I'm back. Interesting that the payment address located in china, but who cares, I'm back :)

Honestly, I expected that Omni will do something like that. So wasn't shocked that it happened.

Inb4 it was real.

Renestey - April 2, 2020, 4:10 am

Clicked on some fishy link of Lavish Living when I got that, felt a bit weird tbh

Mikeeey69 - April 2, 2020, 4:29 am

Honestly I woke up like a zombie went on HF and saw the message

Clicked continue and bam remembered it was April fools

So then again I didn't even know what that message was till I clicked continue

PlutoQC - April 2, 2020, 5:20 am

Jam1e - April 2, 2020, 8:25 am

I was asleep for most of yesterday, so I forgot all about April Fools.

This morning I jumped online and saw that message. I was so pissed until I realised what was happening ?

3xploit - April 2, 2020, 8:38 am

KeelanxHacks - April 2, 2020, 9:00 am

Lol I was more worried about hf than my account. Because I knew that ain't sound right, almost had me though maybe next year eXceptional - April 2, 2020, 11:45 am

I seriously almost had an attack. I care too much for this account.

SIM-3587630 - April 2, 2020, 12:14 pm

Losing a account like yours gonna be most painful thing to watch

Megzeni - April 2, 2020, 11:21 pm

That's why it called 'April fool'. Many of us still fooled.

Because even though every year we often experience it, but still we become fools.

Anyways, without a surprise, this April is certainly not fun.

Werd - April 3, 2020, 12:27 am

You and me both my man...

and everyone else I think.

Yeah. Actually there's a recent activity on my account for which I knew this could actually happen but I also let the admins and mods know about it.

A + - April 3, 2020, 4:53 am

I was waiting for it. Good one though.

I was shocked, I thought that it was because I use a VPN to log in, I was ready to contact Omni about it and explain. Then I saw that it was a joke LMAO!!

Pow3r - April 3, 2020, 4:09 pm

I fell for it also ffs. I was legit trying to work everything out super fast in my head when the date hit me and I was massively relieved lol.

BitcoinLuxury - April 3, 2020, 8:35 pm

It got me pretty good probably more than most because I haven't been active for awhile and chose that day to come back.

Motusora - April 3, 2020, 8:37 pm
