This AMV is my personal favourite! It's so well made!

Whats yours?

Always found this one to be fitting for both the song and anime, despite the scenes in the animated film taken out of sequence:

Cool video. Art style seems super western.

The first one is my favorite but I like the new style of AMVs that have Darling in the Franxx or Mirai Nikki (might have spoilers if you haven't seen them)

This one is just a loop but still powerful combined with the song

My other favorites

This song by Owl City and Carly Rae Jepsen is actually a banger.
