Thread: Skeet.cc invite?

V?mpire - April 4, 2020, 3:37 am

Hey, could someone hook me up with an invite to skeet? I don't know anyone who has it unfortunately..

Yes random ub3r on HackForums I've never said a word to until now, I will vouch for you as a friend and agree to rules I am responsible for your actions which would punish me for inviting you if you were to do wrong in a very exclusive (inb4 6k useRz itS puBlic but the person saying it doesn't have the hack, is banned, or 1k+ uid), high demand CS:GO hack ill tell you how to get skeet.. Play HvH, or make ACTUAL friends with someone, dont just pretend. Then you get invited to all kinds of shit pretty fast imagine befriending people for cheat invites ??

Imagine being friends with someone who plays hvh you have to be really toxic and special to do it as someone who doesnt hvh, u have to have a superiority complex to make such a toxic statement within itself lmao

a lot of people ive met in hvh are chill

Biggest cap. Everyone is full of toxicity, hvh is like chernobyl.

i guess i should mention the people i met from hvh are no longer hvhing

doesnt make a difference tho, still met them in the "toxic" community

Rayner - April 6, 2020, 4:51 am

Imagine still hvhing haha.

What worked for me is meeting people at 3am in hvh then talking to them for months then they become friends with a mod and everyone gets invited

PM me if you still need one anyway

V?mpire - April 7, 2020, 10:22 am

I do have friends on hvh servers but there are only 3 skeet users in my country (South Africa) and none of them have invites.

Depending on when you stopped HvHing, you and I probably knew eachother. I was always friendly with everyone and made that kid rub bbq sauce on his titties for a skeet invite. Video blew up everywhere. Great times, but I ended up selling my skeet account for $600 and dipped out of the scene
