He molested at least one kid. He's gay, but he's a pedophile.

Kygo and Selena Gomez exposed him.

He had a breakdown because he realised God was real and he is going to hell. Kygo completely rekt him in this song. Basically, he's saying he's going to keep blazing. Burning in hell...

Another song... Kygo - It Ain't Me ft Selena Gomez - she says in codewords/google definitions (gay movement ting not many people know about) he's had enough. (Before he was old enough to shave) and she basically says he had a dream about never growing up... and more.

I want to know your thoughts on Justin Bieber now.
