Congratulations. Seeing that you've surpassed your goal does that mean you get to keep the additional donations or do they get refunded to the donors?

On Kickstarter, they get to keep money raised beyond the goal. Often they have stretch goals that they'll use the money for.

You have got to be kidding me.

Nice to see your project doing this well OP, that is one hell of a niche.

Upon closer inspection, it looks like a shi.t load of work has gone into the artwork/models here.

Still weird as hell to me but clearly there's a market and a lot of passionate people behind it.

Good luck and I hope it does well.

Scooby - April 8, 2020, 6:16 pm

It's the kind of game I'd definitely at least try..... if there was a way to hide it in my game library lol. NOT having that conversation with the Mrs.

Parks - April 8, 2020, 6:21 pm
