Is this a straight up coupon somehow, or just the normal referral code coupon? If it's a referral code, you're in the wrong section. Read the Help Docs. This thread should be here instead: Referrals

Its not a referral coupon, using just the coupon will not make you my referral. If you want I can send you one, try it for yourself.

Do I have to be a new member? I'll try it out on my existing account.

I am so sorry, I don't think these coupons will work on existing accounts, it has to be new accounts. I really wanted you to have one. If you still want to try I will generate one and give you.

"It looks like you've already used a free affiliate coupon."

You need to be a new member, so it's a referral coupon.

You could create a new account and just use it I guess, with clean cookies and a different IP.

Yes, these coupons will work on new accounts, not existing ones. I apologize for that.

P.S Using just the coupon on your new account will not automatically make you my referral.
