Would you consider omegle a good traffic source?

mrknol - April 10, 2020, 7:06 am

I believe it used to be however, nowadays it's flooded with bots. But it's still a traffic source but not as much as it used to be.

Repulsive - April 10, 2020, 8:17 am

Omegle still works, I average 30-100 adds per day with my script of spamming 1 account. Active buyers every other day I say.

Chameleon - April 10, 2020, 8:19 am

it's okay for e-whoring for sure haha

Sarax - April 10, 2020, 4:51 pm

Tbh it's filled with broke horny dudes trying to bust a nut for free lol.

JehovahLovesYou - April 10, 2020, 6:35 pm

Mostly 3rd worlders, kids, and a bunch of lonely old pervs trying to con you out of free pics....some sales, but mostly pure garbage....pretty much any chat room is like that.

For sure! Just get someone who is on cam or talk to them for a minute to make sure they're not a bot or a time waster. When I used Omegle it would take me about 30 or so minutes to work the ewhoring into a conversation. You have to be prepared for that bullshit. lol

Moonmonson - April 10, 2020, 6:39 pm

I mean technically its not 100% dead but like i wouldnt expect much of it !

itsJames - April 10, 2020, 7:42 pm

No, as earlier pointed it is full of bots and broke horny dudes. It is a good traffic source but very less buyers

tothetank - April 20, 2020, 12:10 pm

Tried it a couple times. Terrible leads. Like everyone else said , mostly broke guys trying to get free shit. If you hard sell them, you can squeeze some money out but not consistently. Trying out other sources right now

VikingRaider - April 20, 2020, 12:41 pm

I would say it is ok at this point - the conversion rate is not the best.

fitscout - April 20, 2020, 1:15 pm

no you chat with bots only. It was really good when i was doing it 3 years ago. I was making really good money with the VCW scheme. Just playing a pre-recorded video to some guys for 60EUR.

Really cool. But it died.

Simplex - April 20, 2020, 1:54 pm

Not really, there is so many other better methods. It's like asking is chat avenue is still good.

DyIH4ck - April 20, 2020, 5:25 pm

I think it isn't really a good tarric method, maybe it was but there are to many bots nowadays.
Try kiksexting, a lot of good ewhore traffic right there.

Depends on what you define as good. It's better than nothing. That's something,for sure

PublicEnemy. - April 20, 2020, 8:57 pm

Gotta agree with this fellow fella. It used to be a Goldmine, but now it sucks ass.

Omegle traffic is good but its hard af to run a bot with no issues with their updates. They even ban usernames you use in your messages now.

Jay - April 21, 2020, 6:04 am

I think you could still get adds spamming bots on the site but it isn't as effective anymore cause now half of the ppl on there are just bots

How do you know its banned? Does it pop a message telling you or they just ghost your message with that "banned" username you're using.

If your bot goes dead after a few hours....it's banned. Omegle will give you HUNDREDS of adds in a day if you're running a bot full time, when it goes dead you've been banned.

What kind of sales did you manage to pull off of Omegle? I was lucky to get $20 every couple of days. Third worlders, kids, con artists, professional time-wasters up the ying yang.

Yeah I believe it's the 2nd one as well. That's what i've encountered at least. But didn't know if someone has been displayed some kinda error message. Yeah the only way to tell as of now, is when u notice adds stop you know you're owned.
