I am triggered by the fact that your logo is not the same background color as HF. But best of luck with sales mate :)

Redwall - April 10, 2020, 2:23 pm

Kith products? Supreme? Yeezys?

All those brands are trash and mallcore.

Lmao everybody just dresses the same, everybody looks like they fucking each other.

If you wear any of those clothes, you fit another statistic, people can't dress for themselves, so they go out of the way to purchase stuff like OP mentioned. Maybe if this was 2012, but I doubt any of you guys were rocking any of that gear back in the days.

SIM-3257834 - April 10, 2020, 2:29 pm

The Yeezy resell market is trash now, unless you want to sell locally to hoodlums. Maybe if StockX took less from resells it may be worth to resell again but Nah.

This group is for reselling not so we can take pictures of ourselves and discuss how we look. This is to make a profit off the latest streetwear.

I made 700 off of Supreme Hoodies yesterday and plan on another 500 or so after the Yeezys drop tomorrow. StockX fees are ass but its apart of the biz.

Trash and mallcore sure, but you can still make money flipping them. Sounds like you care for your appearance too much or simply cannot afford anything more than fruit of the loom and air monarchs.

You would need a reshipper if you are not in the USA. The items are not at discount but at retail.

Depends what you're able to cop and what items are o brand collaboration is going on that week.

But the sneaker community that you also get invited to has weekly guides for every supreme drop and how much the estimated reselling value for the item is.

Tbh the hype scene is so much more than clothing. If you can secure copies of bots and popular groups on restocks you can make a killing. As for mark ups like Nas said it depends on the collab so yesterday the motion logos do great, bogo's always do great, etc.

Ash Ketchum - April 10, 2020, 8:12 pm

There are bots for UK based sites such as footlocker and what not. Or you can have it drop shipped to the UK and have it purchased from the US based sites. The guide book gives you the basics for either or and explains to you many aspects of it that is not just uniquely for US sites.

How long does MMLF expect to be the owner? :)

I'd like to join.

Isidar - April 14, 2020, 3:47 am

Before I begin, I've not purchased or read this. Came across this thread and saw some uninformed comments.

Started doing this recently without any need for a group or help. Even if you're got weak business acumen you can still easily profit from reselling sneakers, the latest clothing etc.

You can definitely make money from this, so if you need that push to get going, I'd assume this will serve you well.

Oh yeah, and Yeezy's do still fetch very good profit, if you say otherwise you clearly only rely on StockX, even then there's still solid profit. There's other sites where you can fetch much higher than that shit hole of a site.

For a while, he owns multiple groups and would probably sell one of those before he ends up selling this one. You still get all the other stuff that's included into the membership that's honestly worth way more than $55 as you will easily make that in profit after at most a few attempts at reselling.

So if you're going to use the manual guide in the guide book then that's going to have a very low investment.

If you're using a bot you're going to need proxies and etc. so it depends how many tasks you're running and which bot you purchase.

You get invited into the Hype Beast HF group that gives you the color and userbar on HF. As for the community you also get invited to as part of the perk that offers free monitors and such is based out of HF but it's purely only sneaker/hype reselling oriented.

Most hype brands as long as you get a bot that is capable of working on UK foot sites then you should be good to go. We also offer a guide for manual(without a bot) in the guide book you get when you purchase. Now if it's a release only based in the US/Asia/Etc. you can have it dropshipped easily.

A decent bot can be purchased anywhere from 200-400. There is also bot rentals that you can get for the premium bots that are fairly cheap.

This membership will get you through the first door of the reselling world of hypewear. This means profitable items such as sneakers, branded clothes, and etc where you're able to purchase at retail and resell it for a much higher price. Bots provide you the capability to purchase those items in mass or higher your chance of purchasing the item then if you did not have one. In the guidebook, it does give you help/guide on copping manual on some sites so if you still want to profit from this but don't want to get a bot you're able to do that.

You can sell the items on StockX or locally.

The auto check out tool puts your credit card info and checks out once the item is in the cart.

There is international drops.

If you would have looked through the posts you would have seen plenty of history of hitting hyped releases lol?

Also we run one of the biggest cook groups as well as having exclusive tools to use for hitting hyped releases manually.

Suggest you to do a little more reading before posting lol?

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.
