Thread: Deeks UID 76615 | Reselling Valorant Account

carcossa - April 10, 2020, 3:24 pm

I just got DC'd from my Valorant Account I bought off him from yesterday, I am waiting for him to respond so I don't want to open a scam report but the Gmail account password was changed an hour ago, and now I can't sign in to Valorant. I didn't get time to change the password since I've been busy as I am an essential worker.

I'll wait his response.

He "suddenly" gets an extra key 7 hours later, I'm assuming he realized I didn't change the password.

I will be charging back via my bank but I really do not want to go through that process for $40 but out of pride I will.

I really hope he just got greedy or I don't know what got in his head, but I hope he makes this right so I don't have to file unauthorized through bank. I am working and would really like to have a few hours to play Valorant at night.

I want to wait for his response first instead of diving deep in, it would be simple to resolve this.

Major mistake on my part.

As soon as I got the drop, I gave the info to a friend. He wasn't using it, so I just assumed he didn't want it and sold it on here. I forgot to change the info on it and didn't tell him I sold the account off, and I guess he wanted to use it after all.

I messaged him as soon as I got the PM's on here and explained the situation. He understood and gave the account back. I changed the password back and have PM'd it to OP.

This was 100% my fault, but he should have the info now. Even though you are the only one with the current password, please just change everything to be safe.

Once again, I am very sorry for this, it's been a crazy couple weeks and my brain isn't all there right now.

(Also just to clear up, I wasn't reselling. I had closed the thread in the Account section and reopened it in the Secondary Sellers section. At this time, I made that thread you referenced 32 hours ago, but sold you the account 27 hours ago. So I didn't make it after I sold you the account trying to resell it. Just wanted to clear that up and show I really wasn't trying to scam anyone here).
