Thread: WeLeakInfo is Seized!

OBAMASELF - April 12, 2020, 2:51 am

I just found out today that the one of my favourite website is seized. Does anyone know any alternatives like WeLeakInfo. I have seen some websites offering how they have billions of data breaches and shitt but they are not as reliable as WeLeakInfo.

RIP WeLeakInfo

Is there any similar site available?

It's bound to happen with these sites anyway.

thanks , you're so updated with the news happenings around the world .

Usually websites like these fake their "seize". Same thing like markets on the dark web when they exit scam they would put like they have been seized. It's pretty easy to fake it.

The DOJ posted a release about the site.

This isn't new. They were seized very before from this post. There are alternatives though.

Pow3r - April 12, 2020, 5:09 am

Personally I have never used such a site but I am sure it will pop up again somewhere. They always seem to find a way back onto the net at some point.
