Thread: Valorant YT Thumbnail

Changement - April 12, 2020, 5:09 am

Hello :)!

So i was bored and tried to make my first ever thumbnail.

Because of Valorant is so hyped up i tried to make one for it.

Let me know what you think hehe

For a first ever thumbnail this is very good dude im eager to see what else you can do

For thumbnails you want the text to be as large as possible.

Also instead of having the screenshot in the right use one of the characters (no inner glow.)

Overall great work, I like the text and colors, would leave the 'headshot' text out though, or replace it with clutch.

7/10

It is too ADHD in my opinion. Also I think the text would look small like Herbert pointed out.

I thought so too, but remember it's for a gaming audience, majority of which are kids.

That is true, which is why I said in my opinion. I think the thumbnails are gonna catch the attention of the target audience.

Looks very nice and cool impressive for first thumbnail.

Overall it is good works.

But i think you should put the text at front of the picture. Yeah i know, it will looks like cover cd box games, but it nice i think.

I dont have problems with inner glow text, as long as you put interested text on it.

After all, it is for advertising.

I can't say why, but you still have room to optimization.

It looks great though and I prefer the second one.

Triple has one P. Apart from that, I like it.
