Anyone remember the day we broke HF by playing scratchcards and making endless amount of bytes? Those were the days

Dotexe - April 13, 2020, 8:29 am

I remember how few people used to exploit and resell the bytes, they got closed anyway but yeah, yikes

Yin Yang - April 13, 2020, 8:30 am

Yeah I remember that, but good thing Staff got onto the exploit

To be honest I don't think they did it knowing they would get closed.

However it was a shit move still, no one is retarded enough to think Omni would allow us to keep those bytes

What did the vulnerability allow users to exploit?

Dorrance - April 13, 2020, 9:12 am

Are you talking how you exploited the game? And everyone else followed.

?nxy - April 13, 2020, 10:50 am

I come from the land before time

even the dinosaurs remember me

Whiskey - April 13, 2020, 10:55 am

How did they exploit it?

Almonds - April 13, 2020, 11:09 am

I bought a bunch of awards, was a good day. Even after the reset ??

Remember back when Friyie scammed some dudes, then took a vacation ban, and then changed his name to Yung gravy and then thought everything was forgotten?

Fuck off you little shit.

Is donating the only way to obtain scratch cards?

Ombra - April 15, 2020, 6:43 am

To be honest I think I missed it, I was probably sleeping that day ?

Yeah if it makes you feel any better it was only an hour ago i thought u had to donate for scratch cards.

after blowing 1k bytes donated to me i found out i could've bought one of these bad boys LMAO

Xerotic - April 15, 2020, 8:53 am

I knew it was going to happen before it happened. Before scratchcards were released. I did the math and I was certain within minutes/hours millions of bytes would be generated. Omniscient didn't share my concern at the time so that's how scratchcards were launched ?

It was a funny "told ya" moment.

Vitani's Mate - April 16, 2020, 1:13 am

Lmao yeah I made so much bytes and then Omni took all out bytes away.
My avatar is a meme that I made back in day when it happened.

Ash Ketchum - April 16, 2020, 1:16 am what's best reward from 1k scratch card? i bought one and just won 1k bytes lol

The Broker - April 16, 2020, 1:19 am

Anyone knows how it was exploited?
