Thread: What degree do you have? \(Or are working towards\)

Perileos - April 16, 2020, 1:12 am

Hi.

I am curious as to what ya'll are doing in Uni/school, or are interested in pursuing.

Currently I have my BBA (Bachelors in Business Administration) and currently pursuing my MBA (Masters in Business Administration) and after this I will do one year of Masters in International Finance in Paris!

What are you doing or going to-do?

P.s.: If you want to choose a business course in Uni and want to get some information, feel free to dm me.

humanbody - April 16, 2020, 1:17 am

I have Bachelors degree in Computer Science and Engineering and don't plan to study any further (Masters) as I am working on a completely different path. Basically what I studied was a waste of time as I wasn't really interested however I studied just so I can have a diploma.

Ash Ketchum - April 16, 2020, 1:18 am

No degree fuck school it's all a scam or reworded old bullshit.

i'm a trained sick cunt and that's all i need to be.

The Broker - April 16, 2020, 1:18 am

Currently doing Economics & Computer Science in the university.

I have a Degree in Teaching. Graduated 10 years back. And never used a single thing in my working experience. Everything is just for formality. I have been working in the banking fraud and compliance line.

I'm in for a long haul, currently on my last year of Bachelor in Science and I'm gonna sit the GAMSAT test next year for admission into Medicine. All pathways pointing to a doctor, surgeon or a specialist.

Theocritus - April 16, 2020, 2:27 am

i have not degrees or certifications. just self-taught and run my own business

Nice to hear that...I also graduated with BBA (Bachelors in Business Administration) - Major in Marketing but haven't yet taking my MBA.

Good luck on your journey and may you find success in life.

Keep safe and God bless ???

Theocritus - April 16, 2020, 3:56 am

i have been toying with the idea of getting a masters in negotiation online, just so i have something to work on at nights before bed and just continue learning in general

S????i - April 16, 2020, 4:25 am

Currently working towards an economics degree, however with all this covid-19, having real big issues :/

SirAndrew - April 16, 2020, 4:30 am

Started a course on coding and then the covids came along and fucked it all up. They offer online classes but I did the first one and the signal was so shit I could only hear like every four words then it would cut out, waste of time and money

Yin Yang - April 16, 2020, 4:56 am

Just have my BS in Computer Science. I would love to do my masters, hopefully the company that I work for can pay for it.

I don't need my masters, but it'd be nice to have it ofc.
