i got scammed by player92

i have all the proofs you need

he told me he would edit a photo for me for 15$

i sent him the btc

he told me it would take max 3 hours

14 hours have passed and he still hasnt responded

Looks like you didn't use contracts system, make a community alert in the marketplace

Yanix - April 17, 2020, 4:07 am

It should be in the marketplace discussion and you must guys use the contract when doing business on the site.

accieplug - April 17, 2020, 4:16 am im new to this forum and i saw he had some kind of rep i didnt think much of it..

is he going to get banned?

html - April 17, 2020, 4:17 am

Use a contract in future deals. Sorry for ur loss OP.
Player92 is a known scammer.

Motusora - April 17, 2020, 4:17 am

player92 has 3 opened disputes against him ,.
unfortunately you won't be getting your money back .

shitmaster - April 17, 2020, 4:17 am

That's sad. I wonder what kind of edits have you requested for $15! Regardless hope he delivers. Maybe he fell asleep or something. Otherwise I guess bye bye $15.

Smexy - April 17, 2020, 4:18 am

Sadly, if you had used the contract system you could get him banned.

Net - April 17, 2020, 4:20 am

Once again with this user.

Also before dealing anything on this site, you should read the rules. Sorry for your loss, but it's your fault.

accieplug - April 17, 2020, 4:24 am

wow.... his response was literally "next time open a contract"

damn i feel so stupid rn

Wow., sorry for your loss mate.

BubbleKush - April 17, 2020, 5:24 am

He scammed me once already and wanted to scam me again after that. Not sure if he was just laughing over me but yeah, he told me to buy 100 000 bytes from him at $4 per 1k and go first even tho he already scammed me once...

Xerotic - April 17, 2020, 9:24 am

@OP, next time you make a thread harassing members and avoiding contracts you will be closed. You can only open deal dispute threads if you have a contract with that member. The deal dispute thread is created automatically when you dispute the contract. Read some info about it here: How to Use Contracts || Minimizing Risk in the Marketplace

Secondly, you're a fool. That member had 3 opens disputes when you started dealing with them. You can see that data on their regular profile or their market profile.

<https://hackforums.net/marketcp.php?action=profile&uid=4562173>

I hope you learn to be less of an idiot online when you send people money. HF might not be the safest place for you if you don't have common sense.

Thirdly, player92 is permanently closed for avoiding contracts.

Use contracts or get scammed and closed. Period.
