Thread: Player92 Blatant scammer

maybe555 - April 17, 2020, 5:41 am

I made a request in the request for hacking section and this is what I receive from Player92. He has already lots of open disputes and other threads here calling him out. I thought I should show exactly what a blatant scammer he is. Just close him already.

Show proof our this an invalid statement. If you want to make a community alert do so.

Let me fix your rep because i see a -3 coming.

All i see here is invalid CA. Where's the proof of him scamming you?

If he's actually a scammer, then this only plays in his favor as you posted an invalid CA.

There is picture evidence of him wanting to to deals outside of site lmao. Also his disputes and there is literally another thread below of someone scammed by him.

That's what I am saying post some online valid proof, not no offsite mess. I understand if it's offsite drop a community alert that's it.

The screenshot you posted only shows that he's asking you to email him. It doesn't show that he's making a deal, initiating a deal, requesting payment, saying to not use contract.

I don't care about other DDs and CAs right now, i'm discussing YOUR THREAD. Posting INVALID PROOF doesn't help other VALID DDs and CAs against the user.

I thought you supported the community, I know deep inside you know he is a scammer so why defend him.

Are you trying to get a warning or closed?

Anyways. Eagle 95 the user being discussed got closed by Xerotic on the other valid CA thread. You might wanna close this thread too as Xero only closed the other one.
