Depends on whose traditions (my roommate is a chef). We start with Antipasto with Italian Bread on the side. We shred the chicken meat and cut up all the vegetables that made the soup into the soup broth. We then beat eggs and add them to the boiling soup. The brew is mouthwatering. Lasagna or Ravioli with the gravy (or is it sauce) meat on the side. Espresso Coffee and Pastries. Everything is accompanied with champagne, apple cider and soda.
