Pow3r - April 18, 2020, 10:17 am

Hi Guys

How many of you have gotten hateful messages because you attacked or killed someones Hackuman? I have had a few that were genuinely enraged and seething. Just also recieved one now (Won't reveal name) that literally called me an asshole for killing his monster... I love HF. It has been this petty for as long as I have been here. Used to be about rep, now people are vexed about a fictional game on an online forum... Classic ?

I love you all my brothers and you're more than welcome to play the game and murder my digital children ??

Yin Yang - April 18, 2020, 10:18 am

I haven't bothered with it since I get instar3ktd

Don't worry your not the only one i have had plenty mate i wont name names either but it's ridiculous the abuse i get on PM'S and through Convo .. Lot of hate this game brings and a lot of very salty members pretty pathetic tho they just show there true colours .. It's just a game mate that's all it is Even had one guy make a video of him killing my HUM and then post it on the site how pathetic and childish is that hope he feels proud of himself ?

If you can wait till tomorrow, I'll be happy to return you the favour. OT: I'm yet to get any hateful messages but through HUM killings itself, I've made some good acquaintances here. Stephen was the first and then there are a few others. All of them have been good sport. I respect each one of them who promote the spirit and fair play of this game.

I also just watched as my level 20 blue egg was killed last night when I I was out of moves. It was double teamed and taken down from 400 HP to 0. Did I bitch? Lol hell no. I sent the one that killed my HUM a message saying "Well played." Because that's what adults do lol.

It's stupidity to sit with zero moves in itself. Atleast keep a few moves to hide or heal with HUM even when it's under attack and you can't retaliate.

I mean, yeah. That's true enough. But you live and learn. The point is that one needs to realize the difference between real life stakes and a fucking game lol. Yeah I worked hard to get my HUM to that point and it died due to a stupid mistake on my behalf. But you know what didn't happen? I didn't get arrested or catch an STD. Now, those are things worth getting upset over lol.

We gon pull that card on me. You sniped at least a few of my kills. Don't worry I would of had it day one, but I cater myself to just running operations. See you have all this time since you don't have a big blue and it's easier to get greens and take out other greens.

We have had this discussion plenty times before i play the game mate i don't play to sit on page one as soon as i cross level 10 i kill my HUM because there is no point in going on with those levels .. A clever man will always win i just sit back and take out these weak HUM it's easy . So really if i win a blue he will be killed i will use him then kill him .

I don't want to sit on the front page and blow bytes i'm more than happy with what i accomplish on my own

But now we have a little twist that you can add 2 green eggs together or a green a blue or a gold now that will be fun it's just blown the game open now

Yeah you would most likely have had 50 kills mate but as we have spoken about this your happy sitting there and i'm happy doing my own thing

I never bad mouth you nor have i even threw 1 single attack your way .. I may even bow out with grace from the game but i will always wish you the best mate ?

The main point i made in this thread was basically about the rude and negative comments from bullies on this forum the amount of hate members have when you succeed in either killing a members HUM or even when i killed 50 HUM and picked up the award

Either way i have accomplished everything i can in the game i have won the Gold egg,Blue,Ruby,Green eggs what more can i ask for i have killed over 100 HUM

Regarding my crew The Goons i couldn't ask for a better crew and my crew boss Nuworld is the best he has also picked up the award . people who are commenting that they got instantly rekted please try again because you just need to learn how to play the game. Once you hatch your hackuman attack others to level and then heal to then have a chance at getting anywhere.

This happens in every single game. Doesn't matter if it's Hackuman or any other. People will always cry, they don't understand that it's just a game and nothing else, nothing personal, people just play the game and some win some lose, get over it and continue.

Yeah it happens a lot i have also seen a few PM's from members basically telling members pay bytes to keep your HUM alive that there is very shameful

This can also be classed as bullying and possibly threatening behavior any member who sends a PM asking for bytes to stop attacks clearly needs some help !

It's a great game but when all this happens it's not certainly not good behavior from members ?

I think we've seen all kind of member behavior in this game. It's a shame to see people stop down to this low. Is winning always important? It's a game and it's not always fair, just like any outdoor or board game. Why bother to play it even if you can't enjoy it?

Always keep some moves handy. You never know when you're going to need them. That's a decent trick TBH. You can just use emergency moves to feed or kill of your HUM if needed.

I must say, those are the 3 pettiest members when it comes to competition, HF games and/or taking a loss haha.

Don't take it personally, OP. Some people will send you "f*cked your mom" over XBOX, some kids will call you "f*ggot" on PS4.. and some kids will -3 rate you for killing their Hackúman. In the end, it doesn't even matter.. oh wait that's a song. In the end, it's just a game.
