Thread: Corona Virus Humor \(If we dont laugh, we cry!\)

xAlimorAx - April 18, 2020, 3:02 pm

So there needs to be some light at the end of the tunnel... I hope I can start something that everyone can enjoy and maybe even add on to...

Let me just jump right in...

Prior to corona virus...

Someone sneezes. "God bless you!"

After corona

Someone sneezes. "ARE YOU THREATENING ME?"

As a result of quarantine half of us shall emerge as great cooks... The other half will come out with a drinking problem.

This morning I saw a neighbor talking to her cat.

It was obvious she thought her cat understood her....

I walked into my house, told my dog and we laughed our asses off!

Quarantine Day 5: Today I went to this restaurant called THE KITCHEN. You have to gather all the ingredients yourself and make your own meal.

I have no clue how this place is still in business.

My body has absorbed so much disinfectant recently, when I pee, it cleans the toilet...

Classified Add

Single man with toilet paper seeking woman with hand sanitizer for good clean fun!

I just watched my dog chase his tail for 5 whole minutes and thought "Wow, dogs are so simple"

Then I realized... I just watched my dog chase his tail for 5 minutes....

A big guy with a bandanna before corona... whoa dude looks scary

A big guy with a bandanna after... Damn he must be scared

I never thought I would actually get to walk into a bank wearing a mask and ask them to give me money! Life Goals #CoronaLife

They said a mask and some gloves was enough to go the grocery store.... They lied to me!
Everyone else had cloths on...

Ok, that's all I got. Some of these are me, some are friends and family. I don't think it matters who did what lol

Please let me hear what y'all got.

Some of these gave me a good chuckle. Thanks OP, this is a breath of fresh air from all the depressing bs on the forums.

Stay safe buddy!

Pretty good. A good subreddit I often browse is <https://www.reddit.com/r/CoronavirusMemes/> helps makes the situation a little more torable.

Thanks OP, for the laugh.

Xen - April 18, 2020, 4:17 pm

Love it. I've been sharing a load of memes on Facebook with some positive feedback. Glad that people can still see the light in things

I was just joking with a colleague today about how if someone goes to rob a bank right now, they probably have to really draw attention to their gun. Ski masks and gloves just won't cut it anymore.

Some quality jokes here, OP. Thanks for the share.

I am so glad to know that you guys are human to, for a second there i was worried this site was ran and populated by mindless drones. I even considered "The Merovingian" was at work here.

No but seriously, i am glad everyone is enjoying these as much as i did, and if i can bring even one smile or chuckle to anyone's face in these times then that makes me feel pretty accomplished.

Do you think this is going to be the death of handshaking people? I sure hope so.

xAlimorAx - April 19, 2020, 2:26 am

LoL back to air dap! I hard pass on shaking someone's sweaty, nasty, meat beaters anyway... I would also be very thankful if people would quit saying "God bless you" to me. First of all, you don't even know if I want his blessing, second, I'm sure he is not waiting for your Holy Than Thou, Self Entitled, Nuckle Dragging, Swamp Cu//t a$$ to tell me anyway! So just let me sneeze in peace, it's already annoying and we all know you don't really care anyway, you just want to seem like a good person. If it takes that for you to feel like a good person, you got some serious work to do....

Sorry I think that hit a nerve... rant over...

-xAli

Ps. I did not spell check, i don't feel like it. Sorry, not sorry.

People will be just very cautious and much aware this what this pandemic issue brings out for all of us ???

For what it's worth I can't tell if I have a hangover or the funk.

xAlimorAx - April 19, 2020, 2:48 am

Supposedly if you take ibuprofen you will feel sicker. I don't think i would try that. If your serious, look for a rise in body temp and sudden flu like symptoms that come on really quick. If it's a hangover drink a lot of water... once again if your serious good luck

I think it'll be divided. I'm sure some will continue not hand shaking but over time I think most will again
