Thread: [Free Valorant \[Online key generator\] Landing page](#)

V.V.V.V.V - April 19, 2020, 8:32 am

Started to do CPA again, For a long period I only did affiliate marketing but thought to switch to the old CPA methods again.

Was looking around a bit to what seems to be "hot" right now and as many probably know, Valorant is very hype right now. So that is why I thought why not take the opportunity to share a landing page that I have been running for a week now with good success.

Im not going to start to explain how to throw this up on your host/website. All the files that are needed are in the folder and I will assume you have the knowledge of this if you run CPA campaigns.

The content locker can be found in: Js folder, custom.min.js and at the bottom you will see my link and just replace it with yours.

Please don't spam me with PM's just post here and I will get back to you ASAP.

Is this an account generator?

Cause they dont drop "keys" they white-list you for watching streams.

Might wanna switch it to an account generator to seem more 'legit' really clean design though.

Yes, more or less, is more like a "key" generator. For those who need to change, you can easily do so in the html file and just change what you want.

On the other hand, it has worked well for me so far without any problems. However, in my videos I changed the titles a bit to Key/whitelist to get some better results from youtube.

Makes sense, good work on the design though looks good.

Im not going to start to explain how to throw this up on your host/website. All the files that are needed are in the folder and I will assume you have the knowledge of this if you run CPA campaigns.

The content locker can be found in: Js folder, custom.min.js and at the bottom you will see my link and just replace it with yours.

Please don't spam me with PM's just post here and I will get back to you ASAP.

(Apr 19, 2020 08:32 AM)V.V.V.V.V Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) Started to do CPA again, For a long period I only did affiliate marketing but thought to switch to the old CPA methods again.

Was looking around a bit to what seems to be "hot" right now and as many probably know, Valorant is very hype right now. So that is why I thought why not take the opportunity to share a landing page that I have been running for a week now with good success.

Im not going to start to explain how to throw this up on your host/website. All the files that are needed are in the folder and I will assume you have the knowledge of this if you run CPA campaigns.

The content locker can be found in: Js folder, custom.min.js and at the bottom you will see my link and just replace it with yours.

Please don't spam me with PM's just post here and I will get back to you ASAP.
