Are you selling an eBook or intend to sell on how to open a successful Kickstarter/funding project?
Besides the factor of the product itself, there's might have some advertisement and partnership to make you get your goals on these right.

By the way, congratulations. That's amazing!

You're a funny fella Mr. Robot .

This is not even close to what I expected when I saw this thread.

Even though this is not my kind of thing, I'm sure you will do great with it. Everything you do is impressive, I'm sure this won't be any different.
