Thread: Las Vegas Mayor is a Dumb Bitch

Who Soup - April 23, 2020, 5:14 pm

I'm absolutely blown away with how stupid people have become. How can you offer up the people that live in your city as a "control group" which could potentially kill hundreds. I can't believe she's running a city, she needs to step down immediately.

Simplex - April 23, 2020, 5:16 pm

Yeah I saw that earlier very happy she doesn't have any power in that situation.

Mula-B - April 23, 2020, 5:16 pm

my left ear enjoyed this.

On-topic; what a dumb bitch.

Aedan_ - April 23, 2020, 5:19 pm

She honestly looks really weird. First thing I noticed lmao.

Just gotta wait a couple weeks and we'll be good, I don't know why people are stressing to get back so quickly and risk more people getting infected. So foolish.

She looks like the type of person that would go into a las vegas casino and just gamble at a penny slot all night and enjoy the free drinks.

I think we cannot look at certain situations from a logical perspective anymore in this day and age - logic is not as sexy or as appealing anymore as it is in the past, unfortunately...

Zee - April 23, 2020, 5:46 pm

I can't believe how she's willing to put other lives at risk, but when Mr. Anderson asks her if she'd be willing to put herself at risk, she immediately goes defensive and tries to dodge the question. Thank you for sharing the video OP, and kudos to Anderson Cooper for asking the important questions as a journalist.

Yin Yang - April 23, 2020, 5:48 pm

It's wild to think that casinos are gonna open

There's no way she's the mayor, this is someone's drunk aunty who's trolling Anderson Cooper for the clout.

Yeah, you can totally see Cooper starting to get angry at some points.

Sadly this guy does, and he's trying to get us to inject ourselves with bleach. Seriously am I the only one deeply disturbed by our leaders? This shit is absolutely insane.

Okay, good cause we were besties, and of course, ain't no virus allowed in my house.

Scooby - April 23, 2020, 8:23 pm

Didn't I hear that she called them a "placebo" group? Not only is she a bad mayor and probably bad mother if she parents like she governs, but she's also in need of some vocabulary lessons.

shitmaster - April 24, 2020, 3:43 am

Control group won't kill in the hundreds for Las Vegas. With the size of the city, it'll kill thousands. She is really inconsiderate. I hope no other leaders would even think of making their people labrats. Pathetic.

I hope things will go well.

And she'll be even excluded from the count. Now they know who they shouldn't vote for next time.

Exactly. It's sad to see huge nations having such leaders. I guess we are lucky in a way that ours are trying their very best to protect us although it is not easy.

That's true. I can't imagine the burden of the leaders from all over the world are having right now. It must be really hard for them, since they're still humans like us.

shes doing it for money. shes losing money hard atm. now the question is why everyone says shes dumb? maybe she doesnt have enough money to run the city if this lockdown continues

Yeah. The good things is knowing they are trying their best for us. Unlike that lady from Las Vegas. Butchering her own. Psychotic.

Whiskey - April 24, 2020, 4:57 am dumb bitches like this need the virus

Theocritus - April 24, 2020, 5:07 am i think the lockdown is insane and needs to stop, so from just reading the title there it doesn't seem outlandish letting any leftist media cover what trump does or does not say is not a good idea I've found. they often put words in his mouth or intentionally misinterpret him. Not that everything he says is correct at all times, but that is a separate thing.

IndeXer - April 24, 2020, 5:19 am

Yeah I cannot believe that, I watched it on 9gag and I am still shocked to see that, I think the mayor of las vegas has some deal with the casinos and shit, I can seem to think of another thing as to why she is so persistant to open casinos.

Going based off the CDC numbers

<https://www.cdc.gov/mmwr/volumes/69/wr/mm6912e2.htm>

Why is it crazy to reopen the economy? This quarantine has done more damage economically and to the working class. Unemployment rocketed and it doesn't help that applying for unemployment is the equivalent of testing for the SAT. I can't even apply for unemployment because the commies in California want me to fax a fucking document in 2020. I'll just live off my disability check then. People will die, I'd rather lose the senior citizen population than have families struggle or a healthy young generation.

Well, from my point of view here is what I see from the US president : Call for arms, Call for Rebellion, Call for War, Try anything even the dumbest idea to cure it (the wisest thing he said was that they had to check with medical doctors if this idea is relevent. Which is also showing that anyone part of his core group/sharing ideas with him isn't close to be a medical doctor, and not even a nurse). For one purpose, and one purpose only : Getting the economy to start again.

I think he has too much exposure, and need to spend some of his useless talking times to actually educate himself on the subject he will be talking about. Because I could tell him that I have a cure that will kill any existing virus, it's called : Uranium. Inhale some uranium powder, since it will go straight to your lungs it will focus the virus first.

I don't know if the hospitals are full in the USA (I assume they are close to being full) so good luck have fun when u get sick and u need to get on the ventilator. It's not worth it to re-open, unless you do not care about your citizens.

Don't worry, Trump will say that someone in the Task Force advised him that it was easier to breath with the mouse open, so people who needs ventilators should start practicing
