I'm no multi u aussie but I joined the forum after a client told me this would be a great place to sell my accounts and now I'm fucking addicted to this fucking forum even though I can't sell my accs because I need to be Ub3r or Vendor to sell adult accounts.

I'm on treatment for depression since I was 16 normie, I already tried to kill myself but 10 anti depressants taken in one hour didn't really do much, not even full overdose so now I'm here because I'm a pussy and I don't wanna try to take more than that.

As a matter of fact I didn't.

I'll think about it once I have over 100 accounts in stock, currently got a scare from PornHub and I slowed the process a little bit from 10 accounts / day to 5 / day.

I don't look at negatives in life.

As a matter of fact my life is decent, my brain is just fucking stupid and no matter what anti-depressants I use, how strong they are or how many hours I spend in my psychiatrist's office it just won't fix itself.

I got a defect brain, does someone around here sell brains? I'd bid on one.

That's how many I send to verification, not how many get actually verified.

I'll send you a PM in one week when I'm sure I can fully supply every client source I have ahead of time. (And also letting the accs age a little)

What do you know? You come into a troll post, troll with others and find yourself a potential partner.

Actually i joined in 2010 as well and before November, my original account was removed upon my request by factor8 (when he dealt with accounts) and with permission to make this one due to the username of my original being kiddish/low-quality content and I had a lack of knowledge of some of my sign up info, which would've proven difficult to maintain in the future.

so, in fact, I've been here longer than you.

Doesn't count, your join date on this account says different to me. Was here well before you were, now write Bradley on your forehead.

No because you're not important and your join date isn't even impressive.

Check your join date again pal. Don't make up lies to make yourself relevant. Been here 10 years at the end of the year and know more about the community then you will ever.

Don't be flexing on me, you are barking up the wrong tree.

:O . I'll skip. I may get lucky in 50 years when I'm 82.

Anyway that's an interesting website you shared. What an idea for a website niche!
Just wondering who'd actually use it and for what. That's other than telling others how to fuck. ?

Hell yeeeeeeeh. Omg it sounds so amazing! I had my daily aussie day.

Fun fact, one of my most watched streamers on twitch is an aussie guy playing GTA V RP. He is hilarious! This is why it reminded me on him as soon as I saw the thread.?
