Hi, not sure if this was already discovered just wanted to point out there's duplicates in the available smilies.

I think he meant it along the lines of "most users who post issues related to images or css don't bother to refresh the cache, i'm surprised this isn't one of those cases and it's an actual issue".

I've noticed that for a while, same as it getting broken (arrangement). Also, just beside that first emoji where you put a box, is also another duplicate.

Damn you're right I didn't see that one lol, I guess since there's 4 all it would technically do is remove a single row, shouldn't mess up the 4x grid they got going on

If we remove 4/all of them, they'll be gone. We just need to remove 2, the duplicates.

I literally cannot continue browsing HF as long as the duplicate emojis are there. What in the heck is that. My PTSD ehheh i mean OCD is triggering so hard right now. Imagine if i intend to use the second emoji, but press the first one? How could i ever forgive myself? I can't and you shouldn't either. Let's go on a strike and not use any emoji's until it is fixed! That'll show them!
