Thread: Hacking a WIX website

dreamerboy - April 26, 2020, 1:39 pm

Anyone knows how I can gain access to this website:

<https://www.mastersofcashback.com/>

EDIT: I don't want the website access, I want the content from the website. Click on Member Login and there is only 1 password form. Maybe bruteforcing script or something?

You have no password, thus you cannot enter. you also cannot get password

There is nothing impossible.

But, just being realistic, getting access into Wix database user is very difficult. Don't push too hard, buddy.

Cheers, tnx for the advice, but have you actually open the web page and saw that I am not talking about Wix user hacking, but rather bypassing a web form that has password field?

Hmm let me see... I watch Mr. Robot, but did u know that almost all the hacks in Mr. Robot actually exist?

Why do you want access to this BS? I've been doing internet marketing for more than 10 years and all these sites with "money systems" and such are a complete bullsh*t where only the seller profits from it. By "all" I mean literally "ALL" even courses which cost over 1k USD.

Just by looking at this video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xXfKs_-eqHI one can tell that all this is one indirect scam.

Me and other guys I know call such people "gurutards". I even wrote a term about it: <https://www.urbandictionary.com/define.php?term=gurutard>

Just the fact that this "magic system" system is created on Wix speaks for itself...

Moreover no person who makes a decent amount of money will invest their time in a course/guide teaching others how to do it. Their method to make money is the course/guide itself.

Alright I have few points to discuss here:

1. I have no idea who the guy (from the video nor website) is, just wanted to get my hands on some of his materials, in order not to re-do the work. But I wrote him a mail and he gave me access willingly.

2. I am not part of that system, however I am helping a friend to optimize an automatic process for training MLM person who wants to join (so my friend won't waste any of his time on teaching and having long meetings) -> just short direct and honest videos

3. The system works, because my friend worked for 2 years and he is earning good amount of money (but he wastes so much time on teaching new people)

4. The guy from the website sells subscriptions to his system ($250 per year) in order to duplicate it, my friend plans to give it for free to whoever wants to use it.

5. I am going to share the system with HF community as well to whoever wants to make money, and I am definitely not a gurutard ^_^

And thank you for the input, I appreciate your opinion on the matter ^_^
