Thank you <3

You can also take a disposable sim card and use it away from home with a disposable phone.

It's better than some services that take time for the verification code to expire to appear.

Can you name those site who update daily, cause the list is long and will be hard for me to find those site.

thanks for the share.

Yep good idea, but practice OPSEC when purchasing the items. You could use strangers to make the purchases in cash for you. Or buy them and wait a year before use.
