Thread: How do I remove ppl from my ignore list

Lavish Living - April 30, 2020, 11:56 am

As far as I know, the only way to remove someone from the ignore list is by going to their profile and click "remove from ignore list"

What if they have you on their ignore list? I can't see their profile to click the "remove from ignore list"

Someone help I wanna clear my list ??

Might have to contact Staff if the feeling is mutual on both ends.

So you just started liking someone you had on your ignore list or clearing out all of the list.

You claim to want to remove everyone from your ignore list.

I know you just want to remove me, you want my attention more than a Thailand whore wants attention from entitled white males.

I was able to remove you during my 6 month purge a week ago since you are kind enough to not have me on your ignore list
