Incentives are on the inside that's the point of the private subforums?

Social Engineer - May 6, 2020, 10:23 pm

Good luck with the group Dorrance, not in a position to purchase a buy-in otherwise I would've.
Hoping to see some great contributions from the group.

What charging people $200 for false hope? its a buy in to cover what he paid for the group.

Any group business-related and is HQ would be invite-only and build a network together, hence why it's a vague description, I'll be waiting to see what this group produces outside of its subforum cause right now just looks like a banned username color and a confusing theme. He lost the quality esthetic once he invited people he's friends with that plan to contribute nothing they're just there for a free user bar.

This group will be sold within 4-5 months if he can't sell at least 10 spots. mark my words

For a group that 'spreads wealth' while charging $200 to join is indeed a 'big' investment if you don't got anything to contribute except the funds. I think groups like this should be made more often, as it almost guarantee some kind of 'quality' within the group itself.

Great group, I love the Userbar but I dislike the colour of the name. I doubt I'll ever get invited, as I don't like to buy-in groups at this point in life except the Ston3rz which was 90% because of the Userbar and 10% to support the 'stoners' around HF.

Thank you on the comment of the userbar, everything has a purpose my boy.

All what needs to be said is those that has been recruited has shown that they fit the Made Man description.

I can simply put the buy-in to $500 to be an asshole. I put it at $200 for a purpose reason for those who can't contribute as what was said above. And I expect nobody to buy-in as well. There is incentives only a few know about?. Limited spots I will say.

I will keep letting the minds wonder.

Looks like a great quality group with a solid niche color userbar. Love the fact that the price bar is high, keeping it exclusive and not just trying to earn your money back. I do question the userbar color potential in the marketplace heavily. I wonder if in the future, people may skip the threads as they believe it is a closed account because of the previous set standards of the forum

I don't know what y'all beef have with Dorrance but if he says that it's not just a ploy give him a chance to prove himself.

How many groups are even over a year old as of the current date? Dawn?

If Dorrance decides to throw the group down the drain: that's his decision and he spent his money to do so.

If Dorrance decides to dedicate his time: then maybe it will workout and aid in raising group value overall.

No fucking wonder this forum is dying, all of you are compulsively pessimistic about new 'horizons.'

Nevertheless, Dorrance, you know I'll help you to shape this group into whatever image you have in mind. However, don't give into the naysayers - Arnold

I see why everyone is saying it's a money grab, however, the group is literally brand new and $200 is a very pricey buy in (to my understanding the focus isn't on buyins)

Since you've just come back we don't expect you to understand orchid, but you'll eat these words. It's a money grab and you and i both know that, the $200 buy in is to make it feel more exclusive and he only needs a few people to buy in to cover his investment.

But your group is pretty dead. People legit just paying for a coloured username.

I hope Dorrance can actually make something good with the group and doesn't end up just a money grab. Could think of much better ways to spend 2-3k to get a better ROI

My group was never a money grab, it was legit just for the pink username.

And it's far from dead. We have weekly tournies with 10+ group members. Most active group id say tbh.

Gotta say it's more active than others I'm in but if that's what I have to compete with then making a quality group should be ezipz

Yeah lol groups have been dead for years. Hence prices going down to $1k zzzz

But as long as I have 5+ ppl willing to play in our tournies, I'm happy with my group. Pink username

I actually think it could lead to the exact opposite. People seem to love drama, so most would be interested in what happened to the user and would therefore visit the thread.

Scooby - May 8, 2020, 9:08 am

Hey, Dorrance , your user title is grammatically incorrect. It should be 'Loyalty Always Wins' since 'Loyalty' is singular. Don't know if you care or not but between seeing that in every post of yours and the tendency of people to say 'could of' instead of 'could have', the Grammar Whore in me is dying a little inside lol.

This is a good perspective, and may be true as well. It definitely proposes risk however. And anything that would lower my click rate by even 1% would be a no for me

Lol bro the word "finna" has been going around long before any of us were even a thought on this earth.

Our parents generation were using that word, hell maybe even their parents generation too. It's been around for absolute ages, us white people are just the most curious cats and think that once we discover something it had to have been the first time. ?

If your going to pm me. Pm me your resume, skills, & contributions. What can you contribute or bring to the table? Why should you be chosen?

Dorrance - May 11, 2020, 2:08 am

Only seen a few worthy applicants.

I will say this message me your skills.
How you make a living.
What can you contribute or bring to the table.
Why should you be chosen over someone else.

My job is to enhance your skills or trade. Either turn them into an avenue of making money or more money.

Yes you're going to enhance someones already successful business that may not have any affiliation with the skills you have.

sounds like you want people to join you so you can cut into their profits, please tell me how you would benefit my already successful business in a way i couldn't?

And I want something other than a false marketing promises, anyone can pay for ads/proxy sales.

I provide you with the right tools, if you use that's your choice. I have given free game to numerous users that are not in the group, but are pretty cool users who has utilize my ideas.

So you're saying you're willing to take in a beginner gfx artist and somehow help his business become successful with some kind of tool or ideas you provide?

Then I offer to find you someone with a dead graphic business or another business to let in and show me what you can offer, if you're able to help them succeed without you making money off it I'll never speak out of tone again about masterminds if this is something you're up for contact me.

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. This OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.
