Thread: Who are HFs biggest rivals?

Orchid - May 4, 2020, 5:08 pm

Definitely have found the hostility on the forum since my return.

Who do you believe has the biggest ongoing rivalry?

Rivalry can be defined as: two people engaging in an argumentative nature.

Me and Dorrance.

I don't like snitches, but I also don't think this thread helps.

I like Dorrance always have. He was ALWAYS nice to me and I'll never forget that.

I totally thought you meant rival forum, Orchid lol. I was like, "Do we have a rival?"

Monopoly crew vs everyone else.

Monopoly just uses people and throws them out after losing their eggs.

Xerotic - May 4, 2020, 5:18 pm

I find HF considerably less hostile than back in the day. If anything, there was just a shift in the rhetoric towards older members. Oftentimes they would act as if they owned the world while contributing little to HF in years.

a lot of older people demand respect for being apart of what hf is today and even if that was impacted by them on a miniscule level they still think of it this way, and i don't blame them as i said can't win a war without a cargo driver, all people serve their purposes in shaping a community.

I would agree with this. Granted I've only been here a couple years, but it's way less hostile in general than the first few threads I looked at. I recall there being a thread where Omni was lamenting the overall sense of entitlement that Ub3rs were displaying.

Kant Atta - May 4, 2020, 5:22 pm

Honestly I just don't get myself involved in the drama. I'm not interested in it. Personally I've found HF to be an enjoyable environment

I have so much hash rosin in my fridge and I just want a place to flex my illicit goods thanks

Just so you know, it doesn't look like the group is very active. But it's worth it for the userbar in my opinion.

No, each time I take of hit of marijuana it's $50, not even on my worst day would I pay that to join another group.

I'll smoke $50 worth of weed, that should be enough to prove my worth

de_g3ntl3m4n - May 4, 2020, 5:34 pm

I mean if you keep looking around you will see what up and i feel like youd also be able to feel whats up aswell, things are just everywhere if you ask me hahah but its quit funny too

That doesn't fly anymore, there's literally no way to get in without giving some Cheeto chaser a bit of your coin. As stated in previous thread, groups are not what they once were, sure they've always been a money grab but good luck getting into one even if you're the HF snoop dog of weed.

Cameron - May 4, 2020, 5:35 pm

My biggest rival is still Black Shadow. I know you're still here somewhere you frail old man

It's a buy in group. I don't know how much "proving your worth" will do but who knows. Feel free to prove me wrong lol.

And a $50 hit?!? I need to get on your level lol.

IPIKIN - May 4, 2020, 5:37 pm

It's good to have a joke with a few members. I'd say Dorrance get's triggered easiest though

No, I don't care for those who speak ill of their friends to gain notoriety, they're equal to rock spiders.

So far I definitely view the forum as a kind and collaborative place; we shall see how things evolve. I uphold my optimism
