well, i think most ebook sellers are doing that ?
im not saying everyone tho.

Zoomers - May 5, 2020, 11:46 am

I think if he offers a middleman until u earn back your money. His method might be decent, but since hes selling a gambling thing that is a longshot.

Good find. Funny that he's in Omners group too and doing this. Hopefully action gets taken.

All I can say is that I don't mind providing that everything is real and none of the photos has been faked (I did this already to some people but I don't mind doing it for anyone). Also anyone taking the words of this clown that created a new account just to come and spread lies on my thread has an IQ lower than a donkey.

Good game. Eagerly awaiting to see how this plays out.

Well, you got your reply

Okay, if you are confident that I'm lying. Let's give $1000 each to some Middleman to hold it. I create video and I will show my wallet and all the transactions one by one. If you are right, you get $2000, if I'm right I get them ?

Exactly. Proof is all right in front of us and he's still gonna try and bs about it rofl. Once again, good shit

You and I both, especially since he's still claiming his shits real and the proof is RIGHT HERE. Even checked it for myself lmao. Looks like the cats out of the bag now ?

And how about you stop deflecting arguments. Answer me this question: Why is the amount sent from the BTC address only $159 (at the time of writing this)?

If your reply deflects the question again I can be 100% sure that you're bullshitting if that wasn't apparent enough already.

BubbleKush - May 5, 2020, 12:07 pm

Can anyone tell me some platform where I can upload the video for you guys. So many clowns here, I can't stop laughing :D :D

So, then proceeds to open 2 additional threads with the same layout. Vida Loca @ it's finest.
Gotta love it. Doubt any action will be taken against him seeing that staff dont get involved with this shit and his status on the forum (and the fact that he's in Omners), but we'll see. Would be great to see the consequences of one's actions on this forum for once.

Who's the clown here? [mention=420] you got it man.

After all that, he still will NOT answer your initial question. ???
Hey broke boy, you hate me since day 1 here, I don't like you either
But just for the case - we're talking about the earnings that are in my earning proofs

I don't mind proving anyone via video or screenshare or whatever that they are legit
The fact that you broke boys can't make a single penny online doesn't mean we're all retards like you

So instead of defending your innocence you proceed to attack him by calling him broke and retarded? Definitely helping your case here bud. Upload your bs video to vimeo or youtube or some shit and link it.

I do not intend to stop if you don't answer my question. You replied to [mention=420] , but didn't reply to me, even though [mention=420] quoted me in his reply. I made another reply which you ignored, and I presume you'll just ignore this one too or, reply, but not answer my question and beat around the bush. Bad decision trying to swindle someone who knows the ropes in psychology.

Omniscient - May 5, 2020, 12:15 pm

OP is indeed a ban evading scammer. He is now closed. I don't vouch or verify for products or services and whatever the "Fake proof" that Bubblekush posted in his thread is between him and his buyers. I don't care either way.
