I have room for one gundam which is why im saving up for a PG or else i would of gone with the MG. Dont want to get the MG and later have to give it up due to not having space

True, I feel that. All I collect and build are MG and SD's. Favorite lines. Don't really like HG's or RG's too much.

You should get into the hobby 100% bro, it's amazing.

I could give some suggestions on sites to buy from but only if you in US.. (idk what country you from)

Would advise not buying gunpla from ebay or amazon they are ripoffs there
