Fish - May 5, 2020, 6:53 pm

This makes so much sense, I was wondering why they all of a sudden disappeared

Motusora - May 5, 2020, 7:44 pm

Go into any section than press CTRL + F5 (if you are on windows) to force a cache reload.

Cooligan - May 5, 2020, 10:15 pm

I got scared for a second, I thought they were gone forever with the new status icon update! CTRL + F5'd those pages though and now I'm all set.

They look great, fits the modern HF theme much more.

humanbody - May 5, 2020, 10:41 pm

Looks pretty awesome, not gonna lie. Good job!

Ombra - May 6, 2020, 1:13 am

I like the new icons a lot, thank you for the update!

Pronouncer - May 6, 2020, 1:30 am

I don't personally like it. Why change something that wasn't broken. But hey nice to see changed nonetheless

RIP Juice WRLD - May 6, 2020, 1:32 am

Looks much cleaner. Good job!

SIM-3587630 - May 6, 2020, 1:39 am

Before refreshing the cache it was a nightmare damn.
New icons look good indeed

Ombra - May 6, 2020, 1:59 am

I have to add one consideration: making the pencil icon yellow (like the lock icon for closed threads) would help a lot imho. I was browsing The Lounge and it took me a bit to identify threads where I posted and threads where I didn't

Free Kurdistan - May 6, 2020, 2:01 am

Pretty cool upgrade, appreciate the time you put in man.

Ash Ketchum - May 6, 2020, 3:14 am

This is why we love you xerotic, such a minor detail but certainly adds more quality to the forum.
Nice touch

I like them! Old ones might have been a little 2008.

This is great. Thanks for the continued work bud. Glad to see you're still chugging through this stuff like a boss.

SaintJimmy - May 6, 2020, 9:18 pm

Thanks for the updated icons Xero. They are much cleaner and minimal. Good stuff mate. I'll get around to fixing them on my mobile. They do not appear properly for now.
