Thread: Animated thread design

Herbert - May 7, 2020, 11:08 am

I've been working on this thread design for roughly 2 days, everything is made from scratch.

flavoral - May 7, 2020, 11:09 am

I think you meant to post this in Rate My Graphic

Yeah, my bad I'll see if it can be moved.

Motusora - May 7, 2020, 11:10 am

Thank you Motusora, sadly I don't, I accidentally posted it in Graphic Resources.

This really looks great. I could very well be your first customer, if you could do a good price =)

Looks clean imo, the only thing I don't like much is the payment methods color, but I guess that's subjective.

Haha, my bad.

I used Photoshop and After Effects for this project :)

SIM-32901749 - May 7, 2020, 3:07 pm

i can never get a good animation for my designs maybe i am using photoshop wrong arhhhh

vyactor - May 7, 2020, 9:06 pm

I'm not that deep into animations but just kind of curious to know why actually are those separated? Is it because to minimize the file size or minimize the rendering time?

Although, if I've to improve something regarding the design, I'd change the colors of PayPal, Bitcoin, and another icon to bit light gray. Also, I'll do the same to the 'Trending' and Disclaimer part. They're barely visible. Plus, on the last part, I'd keep the same padding on left too as you've in top and bottom.

Everything else including animations looks super dope.

omy11 - May 7, 2020, 9:23 pm

Did you learn by yourself or you watched tutorials on how to animate it? It looks great for a beginner!

I only suggest two things, and this is only my preference. I feel like it's too spaced out. You can fill out the spaces with some small animation or a simple design, or close out the space a little bit.

Otherwise I like it!

Mister Slyther - May 8, 2020, 4:10 am

This is very nice and clean work.

I think the spacing in this design is well executed in my opinion.

I would leave it as it is, part of being good a designer is being to also use space effectively, you don't need to make everything big and or fill things up, it will otherwise be ruined and look hideous.

Just adding to the poster above this.

Accord - May 8, 2020, 6:17 am

Looks good, disclaimer below is unreadable for me but maybe its just my screen.

Jake Muller - May 8, 2020, 6:20 am

Looks really clean.

Might change the text animation, more like someone is really typing the text.

Goku - May 8, 2020, 8:35 am

This is perfect.

The use of color, contrast, fonts, and white-space.

I would only add more line-height between text lines.

Color scheme is the same in your signature, but text is more clear and i love it.

Luca - May 9, 2020, 1:32 am

It looks good but your profile picture ruins it.

Hahah just noticed that. My text seems more rounded

Simplex - May 9, 2020, 4:15 am

I really like the dark theme, looks pretty clean :)

TheHelp - May 9, 2020, 4:17 am

Try to compress the size a little more. FOr a sales thread, it should load quicker.

Zee - May 9, 2020, 4:48 am

Great work as always Herbert, keep it up.
