Thread: 40K in a Month

Mourn - May 7, 2020, 12:28 pm

So basically I made 40K in April and the first few days of May,
Basically though a Private Blackhat Method I've found out (and no i don't plan on selling it)
I could show you cash that I've received but that wouldn't be feasible proof.
Most of the money comes in via Cashapp, or via Gift Cards, and long story short I'm proud because nobody had my back so I came up by myself.
I also just rented this nice mansion on the water with my girl for November 2nd to 16th:
<https://prnt.sc/scrqz6>
It's just sad that once you start making money and people see it they'll act like friends just to eat off you..

If true, well done.
Hard to believe with no proof at all, and a photo found online.

okay, you're an ub3r on hf and u probably have no money yourself so u hate on other people.

Regardless of what u weebz think, ill be out there in november :)

go sell over-saturated methods or just blatantly scam people like everyone else does on HF, maybe you'll catch up

Also, I have talked to tanya to reserve it, but haven't paid the full booking price yet.

PublicEnemy. - May 7, 2020, 1:30 pm

Wow that's crazy impressive man! Will you be bringing your cap collection with you as well?

On a serious note I regret posting this here, so many braindead kids on this whack ass forum lmaoo

EDIT: Damn another user gets clowned and negs me cuz i cant pop back.

HF 2020 is so good, i think i know why theres so many scammers n public method sellers on the marketplace ..

I made millions with a white hat method, not planning to sell it.

I bought this castle so I can finally become king of liars

So you haven't reserved it yet and other people could book before you. There's no certainty you will go there because it isn't booked and you want to push it off as it's booked.

You're right, I'm an ub3r, I don't got no money. At least I got some self confidence, which means I do not have to seek validation from an online community that I do not know and that I just joined.

Spoiler (Click to View) nice job, does it include selling public methods and scamming dumbass people on HF who dont use MM's for low repped members??

You still had to "expose" him though.

Mourn - May 7, 2020, 1:39 pm

Ill take all the negs in the world from the braindead upgraded members on this forum who think their words mean shit because they bought a $30 rank, when literally most of them still live with their mom as an adult. I'm 21 and I've been moved out as soon as i turned 21, but yeah thats probably cap too

In the end it'll show they're salty that I posed in the bragging rights section, about a good achievement ive made after getting out of jail and being through hella crap which i wont speak on.

Wouldn't be very difficult doxing you, knowing just your first name and having a generic word as username.

No, as stated, it's a white hat method and I don't contact newbs for selling anything. The only things I sell are some fake photoshop pp/btc/... balances Nice, sounds like a lot of people on HF!

Here's a perfect example: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5738583>

Anyways good luck on that buddy!!

btw if you only get on hf and start to brag about some unproven stuff ... don't expect to be respected.

Ive been around the scene for 5+ years, back when game servers were using curse voice & mumble.

Regardless, its not hard to find that stuff with a simple google search..

And if you think facts are based off what happens on HF, you're more braindead than I thought.

Mainly Skids and weebies are on here, HF has been a laughing stock for years now because of the types of people who are on it.

znc - May 7, 2020, 1:56 pm

if this was true you wouldn't be so mad about people calling it cap.

I don't care who you are. When you make $40k in a month, you don't have a low enough self-esteem to come on a forum and brag about it then cry when people call it fake.

This is facts. Mans is just here to troll, probably going to scam eventually.
