UPDATE KING has now been banned for a month and still no refund.

Let's see if a month off will help him relax.

Updates (to make it easier for people to find my updates on this situation):

Update 10/05/2020:

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Update: 10/05/2020

So a little update, I was going to message king the following message: "48 hours have passed and no reply from you, are you going to reply anytime soon?" - only to discover he has now blocked me from messaging him and unfriended me on Discord.

I was almost positive I wasn't getting my money back, but now I think that proves it all. I just hope he does get banned for wasting my time, wasting other people's time, as well as taking our money.

I could of dealt with someone else, I could of had a better experience and less stress, it's not just about the money but also about the time I've wasted, which I will never get that back, as well as the stress he has put me through, by threatening me, by being rude and again by not wanting to give me back my money.

So again it's more than just losing money, because luckily I do have an actual job so the $50 dollars isn't the main issue here.

Quoting some people here who are also disputing against King or have had a bad experience:

Sent him a down payment last night for a bot. Noticed he was banned this morning. I was gonna try and contact him on Discord but I don't have it.

If you've read my dispute against him, he tried to reverse everything I say. Sadly, he thought that I'm new to this kind of situation. He even tried to threaten me that I will not win the dispute and to stay low.

I'm not hoping for my request nor a refund anymore tbh, Like you said, I don't also see any positive intentions from him ever since I disputed the contract, he went on discord and blamed me that I'm ruining his deals on other HF members. <https://imgur.com/a/vwWgpLX>

Contract Link: <https://hackforums.net/contracts.php?action=view&cid=167637>

Disputed Member: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=115612>

Me and King had agreed on a contract, which was 120 for a Instagram BOT, down payment of 50 dollars, and when finished I would send him another 70 dollars.

A little over 24 hours after I put up a contract with King I started seeing a lot of KING's clients disputing due to him not being able to finish the project he had promised them, I also seen that they had to wait a LONG time to get refunded.

I got worried and asked for a refund, but also some financial problems occurred in my life and obviously I explained it to KING, which he was understanding and said he would refund me.

Below will be the screenshots of the conversations, I had with him.

Screenshot 1-3 (asking if he had started the project and asking for a refund):

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Screenshot 4 (KING agreeing to refund me)

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Screenshot 5 (the reason to why he hasn't refunded)

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Screenshot 6 (KING admitting that he's making another member way for his refund due to the fact that the member has opened a dispute, which made me scared of opening a dispute)

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

The rest of the screenshots are from the conversations from today where things didn't go that well

Spoiler \(Click to View\)

Picture threatening a member "Sydney" for posting and defending the other person who opened a dispute on him, and also saying everyone will be punished:

Never intended to threaten I was simply stating that I had waited a week for a refund, and that if he didn't refund me I would open a dispute, as i was getting worried and felt like he was wasting my time:

KING saying he will NEVER refund my money:

This has gone on for far to long, and I felt the need to open this dispute specially after the conversation we had today.

Please do see all the pictures, and decide for yourself if you would like to ever deal with this member, the way he speaks to people is disgusting, not only that but threatening other people that defend whoever defends the person who disputes against him.

I think I did everything right, I asked if he had started on the project before asking for a refund, he clearly stated he hadn't started, and he clearly stated he would refund me, therefor ending our contract.

After this he claims he finished the project, I ask why? Why would he carry on doing the project when he clearly said he hadn't started on it when I asked for a refund?

To me it all seems like excuses not to give me my money, but I let you all be the judge of that.

King - May 7, 2020, 8:57 pm

Don't worry, I will post the screenshots: <https://imgur.com/a/U39fDyt>

1- First off, before saying anything else, by contacting me, you agreed to the TOS attached to my thread: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6048819>

2- It's clear in the thread, that the only case I refund the down payment is when I fail to create the product due to a technical reason, i.e., when I'm not able to do it. Example:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6073027&pid=59731503#pid59731503>

3- YOU CLEARLY ADMITTED THAT IT'S YOUR MISTAKE.

4- I offered a refund (once I'm capable of it) because I felt bad for you and your gambling issues:

Again, in the thread, you don't have the right to ask for a refund since you came after 1 day to ask for it. I already did some work that I will show tomorrow. I'm also tired.

I have said it a million times, if you're not serious, don't ever come to me. I will state it once again here. Don't approach me for a deal if you're not 100% sure you want it. I don't have time to deal with kids. I've been here since 2009. Many deals even before the contract system. So if you're trying to act smart and trying to ruin my reputation, no one can ruin it at all. I have many happy customers and closed deals for amounts X100 what you paid.

?aked - May 7, 2020, 9:00 pm

So why would you say you were going to refund me if you aren't? Makes no sense and seems like you are trying to avoid paying me.

Why make me wait for a week thinking I was getting my money when I am not?

I already responded many times to this question in Discord and you can look just 100 pixels above your reply.

I'm just saying that if I wanted to refund you, it's because I'm feeling bad for you, and I will pay for YOUR mistake.

Sydney - May 7, 2020, 9:10 pm

?aked Did you dealt with him on Discord?

?aked - May 7, 2020, 9:12 pm

You did not deliver the project.

Why you didn't deliver?

Because I stopped the project before you even started working on it. I made sure to ask if you had started before asking for a refund, if you had already started I wouldn't ask for the refund and we would of carried on the contract.

You then agreed to refund me so therefor ending our contract.

Is that not how it works? Can someone enlighten me on this?

I am now not able to get a refund because before he even started working on it, and after agreeing to refund me, I somehow don't deserve the 50 dollars I put as down payment?

So what out of my good will I just donated you 50 dollars?

To me that makes no sense.

I am updating this thread now with pictures.

Was going to wait until tomorrow to do it with more time, but kinda feeling forced to stay awake to show our conversations.

This has ruined my plans as I wasted my time talking to him, and making this thread. It's not nearly 6 in the morning and I had plans to go to the beach tomorrow morning with my family.

Either way I hope this shows enough proof of everything, like I said I think I'm in the right and should get my money back.

I let the guy do his thing, gave him a whole week where I only asked twice if he had the money to send me, the third time I asked which was yesterday, he spoke to me in a way that I don't think was right, this all added up I had enough and decided to open a dispute.

Not to mention he has been ignoring me since he's been temporarily banned, although I have had people messaging me saying he's replying to them.

I don't see any intention from his part in refunding specially now that he's annoyed for being temporarily banned, just shows the level of professionalism that he has and his will to make things right.

I hope that when he's back in the forums and tries to deal with someone that they actually take the time to see this dispute and think twice before sending this guy any money.

I don't know man, I am lost of words right now.

If you've read my dispute against him, he tried to reverse everything I say. Sadly, he thought that I'm new to this kind of situation. He even tried to threaten me that I will not win the dispute and to stay low.

I'm not hoping for my request nor a refund anymore tbh, Like you said, I don't also see any positive intentions from him ever since I disputed the contract, he went on discord and blamed me that I'm ruining his deals on other HF members. <https://imgur.com/a/vwWgpLX>

Perileos - May 9, 2020, 12:45 pm

I had a contract with him as well, $50 if he could fix an IG bot for me. Dude never reached back out to me, so he didn't got paid. Still shows the kind of character.

?aked - May 9, 2020, 2:40 pm

I've made sure that this thread is shown on my negative B rating, I also made sure to include Omnis quote in the thread and I will be updating the main post with some quotes from people that have disputes against him.

He also tried to threaten me and using his years here to scare me that I would never be able to win this dispute nor would I be able to destroy his rep.

Thing is, I'm not a little kid who's going to get scared, I will do everything to make sure everyone knows he's scamming people, IF he doesn't refund me and everyone else.

Even if he doesn't get banned properly on HF, I doubt he will have much luck in future deals.

There's no excuses to be waiting this long for my money.

Update: 10/05/2020

So a little update, I was going to message king the following message: "48 hours have passed and no reply from you, are you going to reply anytime soon?" - only to discover he has now blocked me from messaging him and unfriended me on Discord.

I was almost positive I wasn't getting my money back, but now I think that proves it all. I just hope he does get banned for wasting my time, wasting other people's time, as well as taking our money.

I could of dealt with someone else, I could of had a better experience and less stress, it's not just about the money but also about the time I've wasted, which I will never get that back, as well as the stress he has put me through, by threatening me, by being rude and again by not wanting to give me back my money.

So again it's more than just losing money, because luckily I do have an actual job so the $50 dollars isn't the main issue here.

Just past 2 week mark, King originally said 1-3 days, said he lost his ID card IRL. Said 2 days ago he would work all day on my project but hasn't produced anything as of yet.

Will update if he pulls through.

Will update if he pulls through.I think he's out of money, and way to many people to be refunded now, you are all coming forward now. I doubt he's capable of doing the work he says, and I think he tried to stall as much time as possible to scam as much as possible before getting banned.

That's my honest opinion, I did wanna be hopeful but after him blocking me on discord, the hopes are all gone.

Same here, have a $1400 contract which I extended before the disputes opened up. My internet has been out the past couple days or I would have posted sooner.

Has been telling me I will be "getting an update today", and then ghosting. Have been told twice I would be getting a demo, then nothing.

Let's see what happens I guess.

Let's see what happens I guess.You payed him the $1400 already or just part of it?

I hope this works out, but from I can tell he has multiple contracts pending, a lot of money in wallet, this seems like a scam to me, taking in as many contracts as possible to get as much money as possible before leaving.

I hope I am wrong, but from what everyone has been experiencing... I'm not sure what to say anymore.

Just a $500 downpayment, $900 more when finished.

There are still a couple of days left on my contract. Will keep you updated.

Well he's been unbanned and he messaged me on Discord and said he will finish my project soon. Thing is, I've already paid another developer to do the project and it took him 1/2 hours. ?

It's the communication with me and his other clients that makes me concerned he wont pull through. He also said I am getting a demo or a progress update today, which has been said before. I like to give people the benefit of the doubt so I'll wait and see.

Please update us if you get any progress updates.

More people need to see these disputes, its actually scummy that he is trying to get away with all of it.

Still waiting on that refund, just thought I would update this.

King has promised a refund, and I hope he comes through, it's been over 2 weeks now.

Still no reply, it's been 17 days since I asked for a refund, taking way to long to refund 50 dollars.

Have you thought for a moment that he doesn't have the funds ? It literally takes no more than 5 mins to issue a refund. Cba to read those pages, but hopefully he resolves it.

He's taken probably over 1k from members, and has no money to refund anyone.. it's a bit strange if you ask me.

But even so, I have given him 17 days so far to come up with 50 dollars, and he hasn't been able to.

I also try to keep contact with him, and most of the time I get ignored and don't get any updates on when he will have the funds to refund me.

Trust me, i cba to check his dd's. Its really your fault to let someone play around with you, that's 17 fucking days. Not 2 or 3 lol. "I also try to keep contact with him, and most of the time I get ignored" Pretty much says it all. If you cant make the connection then the dispute will stay.

Can someone explain how King has not yet been banned, he has multiple scam reports open with plenty of evidence against King, on top of that the user has been online and not trying to resolve any of the open disputes against him, he's not updating anyone of what's going on.

Please do check, I don't think a person who has scammed quite a few members of the community for over a thousand dollars doesn't deserve to still be able to use the forums, or am i wrong?
