Thread: Where to Instantly Sell CSGO Skins for BTC?

Aficionado - May 7, 2020, 9:23 pm

Hi, is there a site where I can Instantly Sell CSGO Skins for BTC?

I've seen a couple that have a marketplace for you to sell on, but nowhere with actual instant cashouts?

Any suggestions? All the sites I've seen have extremely low offers

Im pretty sure the price for instant exchange is very low offers, sadly, I don't think you'll find what you're looking for :/

What sort of percentage are you looking for? -there's always people who buy anything instantly however for a rather crappy price.

Some sites like skinbay.com and i believe even skinbaron.de (not sure about bitskins) offer instantbuy. Problem is like mentioned that they offer very low prices. Example: Knife for 200$ -> Site offers 80$? So about that price range.

Whats the alternative to selling a knife for BTC?

Finding a buyer through forums/those trading sites?

Honestly, I found that if I want to cash out a skin in an instant, I just put it on bitskin for like 4-6% lower than the lowest offer.. Takes about 5-10min to get sold. Could always go 10% lower and it be sold within a min. :P

I was literally thinking about doing this on tradeit.gg, just put the knives up for a few bucks under the others = profit

Hey, do you still need help with this? If you have decent mid / high tier skins i know a legit guy that will buy them for a fair price in BTC. Let me know!

Would you link your inventory here / tell me what the skins are worth? If they are over 200$ i know someone as i said that is smooth and will purchase.

I don't think you should sell the on those instantly sell sites they just give you no money, I think u should just find a trusted seller and sell it for a decent price, or u can sell it on Bitskins it wouldn't be instant but you get more money.
