Spoiler (Click to View) Lifetime membership is as long as I own the crew, which I don't plan on selling. In fact, I plan to eventually buy a group and marry the two.

I, Scooby, retain the right to kick anyone at any time for any reason. (This is just in case something comes up that isn't explicitly a violation but is clearly wrong.)

No refunds. (It's only 500 bytes lol)

Good luck with your Group. You actually brought back some memories from my childhood.

SaintJimmy - May 11, 2020, 10:14 am

Good Luck with the crew Scooby. This is definitely one of the more unique ideas on the forum. I hope that you find yourself some good members.

Zero - May 11, 2020, 10:43 am

Good luck buddy! Looks like fun!

I would first invest the bytes buy-in into cool UB. I would really like to see a HQ Scooby UB.

Anyways, good luck again!

I really do hope to see a cool userbar, but does OP want our actual forum names changed?

He's looking for people to role play with him. Obviously if that's not something you're into, the group isn't meant for you to begin with.

Bingo.

Each crew member will be someone from the Scooby universe and my crew will host things like a book club, a scavenger hunt, and a murder mystery. The book club is open to the public, but I haven't decided about other events.

Not my cup of tea, exactly. But I doubt that will work out (I hope it does though)

Pretty cool and unique idea of a crew, all the best with running it.

Scooby - May 11, 2020, 12:51 pm

Thanks for the encouragement, guys. I realize this crew may not take off right away and that's ok. Over time, I'm sure I'll find others who would enjoy this type of thing. There's only 8 spots available in the crew anyway, so there's no rush to reach the max. I'm more interested in being able to host events as Mystery Inc.

SoulZeh - May 11, 2020, 12:52 pm

All these new crews and stuff are legit so good, good luck everyone applying though.

I googled it already but I couldn't find anything :(Only a guy called Joel who wrote an Episode wiki in 1998 - 2003 I believe, before the normal wiki came about.

Still would be great if you could have a look too though incase I missed something.

Thanks, man. And I understand. I knew going into this that the username change would be a deal breaker for most, but I'm sure new members will trickle in, eventually. Velma is putting together a pretty dope list of optional names to change to that I'll link in the OP when finished. Having a list to go from may help to overcome this issue.

If quality is what you want who cares if it takes a year to fill your crew, You're a smart dude who actually has a goal that's more than a userbar people who want to be apart of that will eventually make there way here, Don't lower your standards to just let someone in who has the name 'jackson' cause he was the directors personal assistant, if they can't put the effort into changing their name to one of the main characters why should you produce them with a crew/high-quality content and giveaways.

Thanks, man. And you're right about keeping a standard of quality. The list will help anyone willing to change their username find one that's available on the forum, since some the main crew may very well be taken. They may have to go with Daphne Blake instead of just Daphne, for example. Or maybe they just really like the episode with Old Iron Face. I'm cool with a member being a villain, lol. I find lists easier to go from than trying to think freeform.

That's part of why I like the changing username requirement. Members that have been here a while and have their OG name are more likely to already have groups they roll with on HF. Newer users looking for a group, on the other hand, I could see liking the solidarity provided.

No takers yet but I've already put 1500 bytes in the vault for the scavenger hunt. I haven't decided if the answers are going to be just on HF like clues to users and threads/posts or across the internet and clues to memes/sites. Or a mix. Either way, should be fun.

And if no one else joins by the time I'm ready, I'll open the hunt to the public at a reduced byte prize.

I know, right?!? I looked into it and it looks like the shaggy that is taken is spelled shaggy with an a. I did a trust scan of the user and it says yes for special characters. This leads me to believe that plain old Shaggy is still available. Shaggy Rogers is taken, unfortunately.

Post your answers to the application from the OP here and start the contract. If bytes are an issue, just PM me. I'd go ahead and change your name while it's available, though. Who knows how long it will be lol

Edit: I see you clearly have the bytes lol but also an open deal dispute. Considering the other user in the dispute has been closed because of deal disputes, I'm not going to count that against you.

And we finally have a Dylan in our crew! Welcome aboard! Make sure to post a quick application when you get a chance, just for posterity's sake. Can't have future members complaining of special treatment lol.

Well, we lost a member but no hard feelings there. That just leaves more spots open for someone else. I also did a spontaneous trivia contest in the lounge and plan to do more at random times in the member contest forum. Crew members that win will always get 5x the prize a non-member would get. So stay tuned for more exciting chances to win some bytes!

Sure thing. Fill out an application and let me know if you need bytes for the contract. As for the username, you've got a few options. You can, of course, stick with green ghost. Or, you could use the episode's name for it, the Phantom Shadow. Or you could use the names of one or both of the lawyers that are dressing up as the ghost, Cosgood Creeps and Cuthbert Crawls. Or any variation. Like I said, you've got options lol.

While I appreciate your enthusiasm, the naming requirement means that this crew is only for upgraded members. Until you get L33T or UB3R, you're stuck as Noob. Feel free to apply again if you upgrade. Hope you enjoy your time on the forum!

Shaggy - August 5, 2020, 5:05 pm

Why this name: Because I see Shaggy in most parodies where he is portrayed to be appeared as the strongest character.

What do I look in a crew : Nothing special really, Just some pals to hang out with and talk about anything and probably solve mysteries together.

What Crews I have been in the past: Sui Generis

That's a really cool idea. Good luck

If I would like to join but I can't change my name... Can I make another account then give you bytes from this

Name: Fred

Why: Only him and Daphne are available members of Mystery Inc.

What do I look for in a crew: Buddies to chill out with, solve mysteries etc.

Previous crew: Never have been in crew before

Multiple accounts is a big no-no on HF. Sorry, comrade. And it's nothing personal, but the fun of this crew is in the use of relevant names and avatars.

Hey man! I just got upgraded to L33T could I still join the group ?

Goods - August 19, 2020, 10:08 pm

I understand the purpose of this group and the requirements such as, changing your name. This is discouraging to members who have never changed their name on HF.

I refuse to change my name but, not being able to join this group is a bummer. Anyways if you ever decide to change the requirements, I would love to apply.

This is a crew not a group.

Also, I love the idea. Please don't ever change the requirements!

My apologies I thought it was a group. Carry on with your recruitment!

Absolutely! Start the contract and change your name/avatar when you get a chance.

Might fuck around and change my name to Scooby Dum.

Jokes aside this is a fun idea and looking forward to see the upcoming members. Good luck!
