His many accounts, he probably has more:

He's offered multiple other people to buy their accounts too and seems like nobody took his deals. Where can I report this to get some attention to it?

Astrogen - May 11, 2020, 8:58 pm

Lmao, using hf convo to buy accounts. He has to try harder.

Crip - May 11, 2020, 9:35 pm

Are you on meth?? you said you had a OG Instagram @ and you acted shady the whole time so I sent the full amount anyways

Rezy - May 11, 2020, 9:55 pm

I don't see anything tying his account to those 2 accounts, I feel like you just butthurt he made a Deal Dispute against you.

ask him for proof about the "IG account" he was supposed to buy from me lol i scammed him for $70 by pretending i would sell him this account, i'll admit that.

he was supposed to pay me $70 and pay for my leet upgrade on my "new account"

I am so lost, where is the proof of the user giving you his phone number, because that could of just been a random convo.

His IP matches no other people, i checked his trust scan, like im not saying hes not a multi im just saying how easy it is debunked as i see no correlation other than a deal dispute against you from that user.

I wanna know about the Omni conspiracy on this thread seems like a nice rabbit hole to jump down.

But ye I've noticed a trend of new members that are all of a sudden in gamblers being mad suspect and usually get banned, something shady going on up in this bitch.

Put your hand a bit deeper in your pocket, and they will. And I am not saying that this "buy in" system is bad, but it's just how things work on HF.
