Hi

I just experianced something weird today. Someone commented on my thread and then gives me negative -3 I have no buisness done with this person. How come that is allowed and after that he put me on that ignore list. Is this allowed or what tf is going on. Sorry if I posted this here but did not now where to post it

Members are allowed to give their opinion on you, there is no rules set in stone I believe regarding the popularity system. Keep Calm and Chive on.

It isn't weird, I explained to you why I did that..

I will elaborate my behaviour, once again, for you dense MF.

1. You posted 5 hours ago that you are looking for work, being "desperate" about it
2. You are selling your "ebook resale rights" for $1000 (starting bid)
(Link; <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6077050>)
3. You are selling your "full" Adobe license for $10+ too
4. You are selling "secure" "Samsung devices" starting from $600

Now tell me. When making a lot of money with some ebook + secure phones + all the other claims that you made in the past 7 days.. why are you being "desperate" when looking for a job?

What I think, and the reason why I negative rated your popularity (as you can read); "I don't believe I know you".

You are someone that is in desperate need of making money, while you are selling products and/or services around HF starting from $300 up to $1000 (minimum).

Also, you said and I quote, again;

Gotta ask who the fugg gives you the right to give me a negative -3 rating we have no buisness done

So why are you so much offended by a site's feature, if you are a legitimate business man, trying to make a few sales here while desperately looking for a job. Also, "BruteForce" got banned and here you are. BruteForce1989 lol.

I hope this was clear enough.. I won't repeat myself like some f*cking parrot to some sketchy member like you. Okay?

However, you're a cry baby who report post of people who say anything that could hurt your little feeling.
