Do you think might be a good investment?

esfomeado - May 13, 2020, 2:07 pm

I would go with Monero instead of Litecoin.

CryptoBot - May 13, 2020, 2:19 pm

I think LTC is dying, it has had no movement since halving.

Monero has a much wider use case in my opinion. Some people don't want their money easily tracked.

Litecoin doesn't really offer anything unique over other coins.

Yin Yang - May 13, 2020, 2:36 pm

No point of it really, it should be much lower.

sumguy14 - May 13, 2020, 7:28 pm

Yeah LTC hype seems to be fading, sees very little movement, very little integration, and has almost no unique value to add to the mix like eth or monero :(

Look to shorting it instead lol

SUBJERCT - May 13, 2020, 7:48 pm

Doesn't help that the owner of LTC sold all of his lol

RIP LTC

RIP LTCThat's old news though.

catter1 - May 13, 2020, 8:38 pm

LTC is quite possibly the most useless coin out there. Anything else does its job better

Ciandra - May 13, 2020, 8:46 pm

It's too risk invest on LTC right now.

I would be agree that no significant investment after last halving.

Apocryphon - May 14, 2020, 7:10 am

Ever since that idiot sold out his shares of the coin LTC is sinking down. What a stupid move he made, ffs.

Not really dumb on his end if he made a profit he made a profit.

Oops lmao I'm not sure what numbers I was looking at but looking at it again im positive you can make a quick 10-15% from ETH investing right now in the next few days. feel free to come back to this post later humanbody - May 15, 2020, 1:08 am

LTC aint worth in my opinion. Find some other coins. There's no real purpose and when you see that Charlie sold all his LTC then that means no future for it.

Sure, best time to invest in the coin that's part of an ongoing scandal and is getting delisted on multiple exchanges.

It has been getting a lot of negative attention for being the currency of choice in a high profile sex exploitation case, causing it to be delisted on multiple exchanges.
