It seems no one has come back with a review yet, while I'm sure you have given out a few vouches already, If you want I will actually leave a review for you if you would like to send me a copy. I don't even have much use for the method but I'd be happy to get you a review to potentially get your sales going. Even if not, I wish you good luck at selling it! Seems like a fair price.

Note to get a legitimate review you need to create a contract to give to a member with a vouch copy and mark it as a "trade" contract or something like that.

All good, just be aware that without a contract started with those members their vouches will end up being deleted (I THINK)

SpookyD - May 19, 2020, 3:56 pm

Still waiting to for a vouch review, to leave one or to see one :)

Toosii - May 19, 2020, 4:11 pm

I'll happily review this for you if you deem me worthy enough.

This method is useless. You need to register in a class to be able to receive emails and send them.

Just faced the same issue. I can't send or receive any emails. It's just useless without signing into a class.

Hopefully OP shows us how to do it.
