Thread: Is premium sellers the new ebook Bazaar?

Rezy - May 20, 2020, 9:01 am

I normally just look through secondary sellers to see what people are up to, but today i went to Premium Sellers Section.

It looks like the 2016/2017 ebook bazaar.

Have all the ebook sellers shifted there or am i just dumb?

the ebook bazaar section has a post from last month on the first page lol so i would say they definitely moved to the premium sellers section

So it's now better to post on ebook bazaar! There are less threads and your thread would always be seen on the first page as less people post xD

Yes and no, because I think everyone knows what happened in ebook bazaar so no one even goes there anymore.

Yeh every ebooks are one way or other same haha only the template inside the pdf changes ! And advertise it with 1000$ per day. I wonder why they sell something if they could earn 1k per day and make it saturated? :P

If you are a vendor only 50 bytes you need to bump your thread, not big deal for ebook sellers who are vendors.

In the past year or so I must have checked the ebook bazaar section about 5 times, so i'd say its definitely switched over to the PSS.

eBooks Bazaar's been inactive lately. Most of the activities are on the Premium Sellers Section now.

CPA Exposé - May 22, 2020, 5:25 am

All the ebooks and mentorships from rich folks you could ever dream of!

I am so glad others also see this pattern! I haven't been the most active the last few years but I have been recently and it totally seems like Premium Seller's section is all these ebooks with claims of making hundreds upon hundreds of dolla dolla bills! Stay safe boys

This pattern has always been apparent. Just have to get used to it. Omni has stated that nothing will be changed many times over the years The ebooks drive traffic to the site, and where they make their home does not seem to matter to Omni.

The most recent comment I could find on the matter was him denying moving the ebooks elsewhere. <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=6023090&highlight=ebook> ebooks are so cringe. I'd be embarrassed to sell those.
