You'd make more money selling just the name.

Does it come with the OGE?

You're over valuing this massively, the league account market really isn't great anymore. Sorry

This account is worth $150-200 TOPS, depending on buyer and rank of account.

Name is probably worth only $30-50.

Comes with OGE, and thats fine guys! appreciate the input, but i'm going to stick to my evaluation!

Offer are welcome.

I mean if you guys were going to offer with all those remarks it makes sense. But In terms of giving an input just for that sake i guess thanks? I mean it won't really change anything.
