This user is a scammer that disputes Zelle and Venmo transactions. He has sent me $4,000 in 4 different transactions that would keep getting flagged and fucking up my accounts. Luckily I saw his other disputes before I kept sending him more bitcoin and saw that he's been doing this before. This user is also an idiot as he told me he would do this on discord beforehand. Proof below. Do not deal.

User stating he will dispute all past transactions:

I didn't trust him with $4000. He sent me $4000 in total across multiple transactions in exchange for my bitcoin. He just told me that he was doing this before he tried it.

I didn't lose anything from this, my accounts are protected. I created this because he's sales bashing my thread.

EDIT: I did fuck up by not checking his disputes before dealing though.

He is probably a carder or something. Not his own accounts.
