Good account with a great price. Good luck with sales.

I would probably purchase this if I had the funds.

Thanks for the reply mate! This is currently still for sale. ?

I'm interested in the account but I'm not sure what makes it worth the price. I've bought similar accounts (with more medals) for cheaper. Does it come with skins/Steam balance of any sort?, or does it have a lot of AAA games?

Hello, apart from the games listed on 'favorites' there aren't any games that would be worth anything. The account itself in CSGO has 180 wins, rank MG2, Silver Hydra Coin, 2017 Service medal, and loyalty badge. The main reason of the price would just be the Steam level, it would cost $126.10 (according to <https://steamlevels.com/> - definitely ways to get cheaper, if you go through bots), also the fact that it has prime CSGO and the other games in 'favorite' that might interest some people.

Hopefully it answers your question, let me know if you're still interested. ?

edit: as well as boosted hours. xd

Without OGE, How do people know you won't just take back? Kinda makes no sense. I've had a good steam I bought from someone on here then year and a half in, he takes it back..

Well I've sold accounts on here before, not many but I have. None of them complained to me about getting the account back. I'm selling this because I no longer game, I have other interests now.

Yeah, I'm not saying you will do it, Just my experience with buying without OGE is dangerous...

Lets say the owner regrets years later of selling it, now wants it back. They simply contact support, next days its right back in their hands.

You definitely have a point, just trust I won't, plus for the price its a bargain. ?
